Re: New Filing Fee Schedule / Electronic Filing Enhancement

Date: June 19, 2009

Effective July 1, 2009, Assembly Bill 65 of the 2009 Legislative session increases civil filing fees for complaints, answers, business court, complex litigation, and probate/guardianship and adds new civil filing fees to writs, motions for summary judgment, third party complaints, and certifying/decertifying a class. Please see attached official fee table for the Eighth Judicial District Court.

Also effective July 1, 2009, you will be able to pay online by credit card all civil filing fees and user fees for your e-filed documents. This functionality will be available for family civil domestic cases in the near future. Online filing fee payments are one of many improvements to the e-filing software and we look forward to working with you on our ongoing efforts to increase the utilization of e-filing technology in our Court.

If you have any questions about the filing fee increases or e-filing transactions, please don't hesitate to call my office at 702-671-0622.
