

DEPARTMENT F DEFAULT HOLIDAY AND VACATION PLAN

THE COURT ENCOURAGES THE PARENTS TO COMMUNICATE REGARDING SHARING TIME WITH THEIR CHILDREN FOR HOLIDAY AND VACATION. The following HOLIDAY AND VACATION PLAN is a “default” schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Therefore, the parents may agree in a signed writing to deviate from this schedule, and this “default” plan shall apply where they cannot agree. HOLIDAYS take precedence over RESIDENTIAL TIME, and no party shall notice to take VACATION TIME during the other party’s HOLIDAY TIME.

THREE-DAY HOLIDAYS

The holiday shall begin on the day observed for the holiday at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 9:00 a.m. the day following the three-day holiday weekend, or the day following the holiday where not attached to a three-day weekend.

CHRISTMAS AND WINTER BREAK

The parties are expected to equally divide all days available for the Winter Break.

HOLIDAY	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
FIRST WEEK WINTER BREAK	DAD	MOM
SECOND WEEK WINTER BREAK	MOM	DAD

Upon agreement, the parties may divide the Christmas holiday into two segments. The first segment shall begin at 9:00 a.m. on Christmas Eve and conclude on December 24th at 9:00 p.m. The second segment shall begin Christmas Eve at 9:00 p.m. and conclude Christmas Day at 9:00 p.m. If a child(ren) must travel outside the County for the holiday, he/she (they) must be returned home no later than 7:00 p.m. the evening before school resumes. If the child(ren) is (are) not in school, the parents shall refer to the Clark County School District Calendar for the school zone where the primary custodian resides regarding exact dates for travel.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Where the parents do not share the same religious beliefs, each parent shall have the right to provide religious instruction to the child(ren) unless there exists a child(ren) welfare or endangerment issue which, if the parents are not able to resolve, may be presented to the Court. Additionally, where both parents are of the same faith (e.g., Jewish, Catholic, LDS, etc.), both parents shall have the opportunity to enjoy the right to celebrate that holiday with the child(ren). However, where the parent with the right to celebrate that holiday with the child(ren) does not intend to observe the formal ceremonies, that parent shall make the child available to the other parent to enable that parent to take the child and attend the event (temple, mass, religious instruction, etc.) Where one or both parents practice another religion he/she/they shall alternate holidays: Buddhist, Hindu, Greek Orthodox, Eastern and Russian Orthodox, Islamic, World Wide Church of God, Protestant, Lutheran, Baha'i, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Sikh, Roman Catholic, Armenian Holidays, Eid of Adha, Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese New Year, etc.

LEGAL CUSTODY PROVISIONS

The parents shall have access to medical and school records pertaining to their child(ren) and be permitted to independently consult with any and all professionals involved with the child(ren).

Each parent is empowered to obtain emergency health care for the child(ren) without the consent of the other parent. Each parent is to notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible of any illness requiring medical attention or any emergency involving the child(ren).

Upon receipt of information concerning the well-being of the child(ren), each parent is to provide the other parent with same, including, but not limited to, copies of report cards, school meeting notices, vacation schedules, class programs, requests for conferences, results of standardized or diagnostic tests, notices of activities involving the child(ren), samples of school work, order forms for school pictures, the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all schools, health care providers, regular day care providers, and counselors.

Each parent is to advise the other parent of school, athletic, and social events in which the child(ren) participates.

Each parent is to provide the other parent with the address and telephone number of the location where the child(ren) resides (reside), and to notify the other parent prior to any change of address and provide the telephone number as soon as it is assigned.

Each parent is entitled to reasonable telephone communication with the child(ren). Each parent shall be restrained from unreasonably interfering with the child's right to privacy during such telephone conversations.

Unless otherwise agreed to by both parents, in writing, extra-curricular activities (sports, lessons, camps) shall be at the expense of the parent who registers the child(ren) for such activities. These activities shall not interfere with the visitation of the other parent.
