4. Decision - making Rights and Responsibilities

4.1 General Principles

☐ The parents, after giving due consideration to all relevant factors, believe that it is in the best interests of their unemancipated child/ren that the parents have shared decision-making responsibility for major decisions that affect the child/ren.

☐ Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child/ren while the child/ren is/are with that parent. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child/ren who is/are currently with that parent.

☐ The parents shall confer with each other and share decision-making authority with a view toward arriving at major decisions that promote the best interest of their child/ren.

☐ Neither parent shall unreasonably withhold consent in making such joint decisions nor shall either parent make a major change in the child/ren's situation without agreement of the other parent.

☐ The parents wish to designate one party to make specific decisions. These decision-making areas shall be listed below.

☐ The parents understand that a failure to agree permits either of them to initiate the dispute resolution measures (Section 18) agreed to by the parents in this Parenting Plan.

☐ The parents agree that it is in the best interest of the child/ren that ☐ Mother ☐ Father will have sole authority to make major decisions for the child/ren.

☐ Mother ☐ Father shall have sole authority to make the following decisions:

☐ All other major decisions shall be made jointly.

☐ Each parent shall have access to medical and school records pertaining to the child/ren and be permitted to independently consult with any and all professionals involved with the child/ren. The parents shall cooperate with each other in sharing information related to the health, education and welfare of the child/ren and they shall sign any necessary documentation ensuring that that both parents have access to said records.

☐ Each parent shall be responsible for getting records and reports directly from school and medical care providers.

☐ Both parents shall have equal and independent authority to confer with the child/ren’s school, day care, medical care providers, and other programs with regard to the child/ren’s educational, emotional and social progress.
Both parents shall be listed as “emergency contacts” for the child/ren.

Parents shall always let each other know their current addresses, home, work and emergency telephone numbers and shall notify each other in writing within 24 hours of any changes.

4.2 Education

The child/ren shall be enrolled in the following programs:

- Child care
- Pre-school
- Elementary school
- Middle school
- High school
- College
- Before or after school at
- Study abroad
- Summer school
- Special education or tutoring or enrichment programs
- Home school
- Other:

No changes in enrollment or participation shall be made without the consent of both parents.

4.3 Medical

Unless otherwise noted, the parents shall confer with each other concerning non-emergency medical, psychological, counseling, optical, dental or orthodontic care.

If there is a dispute regarding the medical, psychological, counseling, optical, dental, or orthodontic care of the child/ren the parents shall defer to the child/ren’s present health care provider and follow his/her advice including the selection of other health care providers.

The parent arranging a routine medical examination shall give the other parent _____ days notice in advance of the appointment so that the other parent can attend the examination if desired.
If either parent has any knowledge of any illness, accident, hospitalization or other circumstance seriously affecting the health of the child/ren, that parent shall immediately notify the other parent.

4.4 Extracurricular Activities

☐ Each parent shall determine the child/ren’s non-recurring organized activities, special training and social events while residing with that parent.

☐ Unless the parents otherwise agree neither shall give permission to the child/ren to engage in social activities that occur while the child/ren is/are with the other parent.

☐ The parents shall agree before enrolling the child/ren in organized activities such as sports teams, lessons or special training which occur even partially during the other parent’s time with the child/ren.

☐ Each parent shall make a good faith effort to give information to the other parent about events and organized activities in the child/ren’s life/lives including school programs, concerts, award ceremonies, plays, sports events and other activities in which the child/ren is/are participating.

☐ The child/ren shall be involved in the following activities:

____________________________________________________________________

☐ The parents agree that each of them will insure the presence of the child/ren at the agreed upon organized activities:

____________________________________________________________________

4.5 Religion

☐ The child/ren’s religious upbringing and training shall be as follows:

____________________________________________________________________

☐ Each parent has the right to expose the child/ren to a particular religion as he/she sees fit.

☐ The parents wish to make these arrangements for future religious events in child/ren’s life:

____________________________________________________________________

4.6 Other Issues

Names: The child/ren shall be known only by the following name(s):

____________________________________________________________________

Other: ___________________________________________________________________
The parents must ☐ confer ☐ agree.

5. Scheduling The responsibility for the physical care and immediate, day-to-day supervision of the child/ren is as follows:

5.1 School Calendar

☐ No later than __________ (date) of each year, ☐ Father ☐ Mother shall obtain the school calendar for the next year and shall mark it or another yearly calendar with Father's time and Mother's time for the school year, holidays and summer under this agreement and give a copy to the other parent. The parents shall discuss any differences by __________ (date) and the parents shall reach an agreement or use the dispute resolution provisions (Sec. 18) by __________ (date). This is the calendar that shall be in effect for the following year.
Section 5.2 Conflicts in Scheduling

☐ Sometimes “holiday time” or vacation time may conflict with time set aside for the other parent. When this happens, the holiday time or vacation time shall be observed and take priority over all other schedules. For example, if it is one parent’s alternate weekend but the other’s Memorial Day weekend the holiday weekend will take priority.

☐ Following the change in schedule due to the “holiday time” or vacation time the schedule will resume

☐ without regard to the holiday time or vacation time.

☐ anew with the parent who missed a scheduled time with the child/ren receiving the next scheduled alternating period.
