

Department W Holiday and Vacation Plan

THE COURT ENCOURAGES PARENTS TO COMMUNICATE REGARDING HOLIDAY AND VACATION TIME WITH THEIR CHILDREN. The following Holiday and Vacation Plan is a "default" schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Any deviation therefrom should be memorialized in writing with both parents' signatures. Holidays/Special Occasions take precedence over residential time and vacation time. Unless otherwise ordered, reference to a "school" schedule for the purpose of defining a Holiday or Special Occasion shall be defined by the Clark County, Nevada School District Schedule. (See www.ccsd.net)

THREE DAY HOLIDAYS (Holiday visitation begins when school gets out on the day preceding the holiday weekend (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continues until 9:00 a.m. on the day following the holiday weekend or when the children are scheduled to resume school.)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Martin Luther King Day	Mom	Dad
Presidents' Day	Dad	Mom
Memorial Day	Mom	Dad
Labor Day	Dad	Mom
Nevada Admission Day	Mom	Dad
Veterans Day	Dad	Mom
EXTENDED HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Thanksgiving: The holiday visitation shall begin when school gets out for Thanksgiving (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school). The parent exercising this time is responsible for all transportation for the children.	Mom	Dad
Christmas/Winter Break: This holiday is divided into two segments. The first segment shall begin at 9 AM following the last day of school, and concludes at the mid-point of the school break at 6 PM. The second segment begins at the mid-point of the school break at 6 PM and concludes at 12:00 noon on the day before school resumes. If the child must travel outside of the county for the holiday, they should be home no later than 7 PM the evening before school resumes. If the child is not in school, the parents shall refer to the Clark County School District Calendar for the school zone where the primary custodian resides; if the parents enjoy 50/50 custody, the parents are encouraged to come to mutual agreement, should they reach an impasse, the Court shall determine the School District Calendar to apply.
Segment 1	Dad	Mom
Segment 2	Mom	Dad

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS, cont'd.	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Easter/Spring Break: The holiday visitation shall begin at 9 AM following the last day of school and concludes at 12:00 noon the day before returning to school. If a child must travel outside of the county for the holiday, they should be home no later than 7 PM the evening before school resumes. If the child is not in school, the parents shall refer to the Clark County School District Calendar for the school zone where the primary custodian resides; if the parents enjoy 50/50 custody, the parents are encouraged to come to mutual agreement, should they reach an impasse, the Court shall determine the School District Calendar to apply.	Dad	Mom

INDIVIDUAL DAYS (The visitation begin at 9:00 a.m. on the individual day and continue until 9:00 p.m. on the same day)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Independence Day	Dad	Mom
Mother's Day	Mom	Mom
Father's Day	Dad	Dad
Children's Birthdays	Dad	Mom

Summer/Track Break Vacations
Each parent shall be entitled to one (1) vacation each year with the children for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive weeks (unless otherwise agreed to in writing). Each parent shall designate his/her respective vacation plans by May 1 st of each year. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of certified mail. If there is a conflict in dates, the parent who designates the vacation first (as verified by the certified mail stamp) will prevail as to the vacation time. Neither party shall schedule vacation time during the other party's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school. Mom shall have vacation selection priority in ODD years and Dad in EVEN years.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS Where the parents do not share the same religious beliefs, each parent shall have the right to provide religious instruction to the child unless there is a child welfare or endangerment issue that where the parents cannot resolve, may be presented to the Court. Additionally, where both parents are of the same faith (e.g. Jewish, Catholic etc.), both parents shall have the opportunity to enjoy the celebration of those holidays with the child. However, where the parent with the right to celebrate that holiday with the child does not intend to observe the formal ceremonies, that parent shall make the child available to the other parent for attendance at temple, mass, religious instruction, etc. Where one or both parents practice another religion, they are to alternate those holidays as provided in the following example for Jewish Holidays. A non-inclusive list of other religions where parents practicing same and shall alternate holidays are: Buddhist, Hindu, Greek Orthodox, Eastern and Russian Orthodox, Islamic, World Wide Church of God, Protestant, Lutheran, Baja's, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Sikh, Roman Catholic, Armenian Holidays, Eid of Adha, Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese New Year, etc.	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
JEWISH HOLIDAYS EXAMPLE:
Passover	Dad	Mom
Rosh Hashanah	Mom	Dad
Yom Kippur	Dad	Mom
Hanukkah	Mom	Dad
Bar Mitzvah Arrangements	Dad	Mom
NOTE: WHERE THERE IS AN OVERLAP OF CONFLICTING RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS, THE FOLLOWING PRIORITY SHALL PREVAIL:	Mom	Dad

Department W Holiday and Vacation Plan (Without overnights)

THE COURT ENCOURAGES PARENTS TO COMMUNICATE REGARDING HOLIDAY AND VACATION TIME WITH THEIR CHILDREN. The following Holiday and Vacation Plan is a "default" schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Any deviation therefrom should be memorialized in writing with both parents' signatures. Holidays/Special Occasions take precedence over residential time and vacation time. Unless otherwise ordered, reference to a "school" schedule for the purpose of defining a Holiday or Special Occasion shall be defined by the Clark County, Nevada School District Schedule. (See www.ccsd.net)

HOLIDAYS (Holiday visitation begins on the actual holiday at 9:00 a.m. and concludes that day at 7:00 p.m.)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Martin Luther King Day	Mom	Dad
Presidents' Day	Dad	Mom
Memorial Day	Mom	Dad
Labor Day	Dad	Mom
Nevada Admission Day	Mom	Dad
Veterans Day	Dad	Mom
EXTENDED HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Thanksgiving: The holiday visitation shall Thanksgiving day at 9:00 a.m. continue until 7:00 p.m. The parent exercising this time is responsible for all transportation for the children.	Mom	Dad
Christmas: This holiday is divided into two segments. The first segment is noon on Christmas eve and concludes Christmas eve at 8:00 p.m. The second segment begins Christmas morning at 10:00 a.m. and concludes at 7:00 p.m. Christmas night.
Segment 1	Dad	Mom
Segment 2	Mom	Dad

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS, cont'd.	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Easter: The holiday visitation shall begin at 9:00 a.m. Easter morning concludes that evening at 7:00 p.m.	Dad	Mom

INDIVIDUAL DAYS (The visitation begin at 9:00 a.m. on the individual day and continue until 7:00 p.m. on the same day)	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Independence Day	Dad	Mom
Mother's Day	Mom	Mom
Father's Day	Dad	Dad
Children's Birthdays	Dad	Mom

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS Where the parents do not share the same religious beliefs, each parent shall have the right to provide religious instruction to the child unless there is a child welfare or endangerment issue that where the parents cannot resolve, may be presented to the Court. Additionally, where both parents are of the same faith (e.g. Jewish, Catholic etc.), both parents shall have the opportunity to enjoy the celebration of those holidays with the child. However, where the parent with the right to celebrate that holiday with the child does not intend to observe the formal ceremonies, that parent shall make the child available to the other parent for attendance at temple, mass, religious instruction, etc. Where one or both parents practice another religion, they are to alternate those holidays as provided in the following example for Jewish Holidays. A non-inclusive list of other religions where parents practicing same and shall alternate holidays are: Buddhist, Hindu, Greek Orthodox, Eastern and Russian Orthodox, Islamic, World Wide Church of God, Protestant, Lutheran, Baja's, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Sikh, Roman Catholic, Armenian Holidays, Eid of Adha, Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese New Year, etc.	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
JEWISH HOLIDAYS EXAMPLE:
Passover	Dad	Mom
Rosh Hashanah	Mom	Dad
Yom Kippur	Dad	Mom
Hanukkah	Mom	Dad
Bar Mitzvah Arrangements	Dad	Mom
NOTE: WHERE THERE IS AN OVERLAP OF CONFLICTING RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS, THE FOLLOWING PRIORITY SHALL PREVAIL:	Mom	Dad

Department W Out-of-State Holiday and Vacation Plan

THE COURT ENCOURAGES PARENTS TO COMMUNICATE REGARDING HOLIDAY AND VACATION TIME WITH THEIR CHILDREN. The following Holiday and Vacation Plan is a "default" schedule where parents are unable to otherwise agree. Any deviation therefrom should be memorialized in writing with both parents' signatures. Holidays/Special Occasions take precedence over residential time and vacation time. Unless otherwise ordered, reference to a "school" schedule for the purpose of defining a Holiday or Special Occasion shall be defined by the Clark County, Nevada School District Schedule. (See www.ccsd.net)

EXTENDED HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Thanksgiving: The holiday visitation shall begin when school gets out for Thanksgiving (or 3:00 p.m. if the children are not in school) and continue until school is scheduled to resume (or 9:00 a.m. if the children are not in school). The parent exercising this time is responsible for all transportation for the children.	Mom	Dad
Christmas/Winter Break: This holiday is divided into two segments. The first segment shall begin at 9 AM following the last day of school, and concludes at the mid-point of the school break at 6 PM. The second segment begins at the mid-point of the school break at 6 PM and concludes at 12:00 noon on the day before school resumes. If the child must travel outside of the county for the holiday, they should be home no later than 7 PM the evening before school resumes. If the child is not in school, the parents shall refer to the Clark County School District Calendar for the school zone where the primary custodian resides; if the parents enjoy 50/50 custody, the parents are encouraged to come to mutual agreement, should they reach an impasse, the Court shall determine the School District Calendar to apply.
Segment 1	Dad	Mom
Segment 2	Mom	Dad
Easter/Spring Break: The holiday visitation shall begin at 9 AM following the last day of school and concludes at 12:00 noon the day before returning to school. If a child must travel outside of the county for the holiday, they should be home no later than 7 PM the evening before school resumes. If the child is not in school, the parents shall refer to the Clark County School District Calendar for the school zone where the primary custodian resides; if the parents enjoy 50/50 custody, the parents are encouraged to come to mutual agreement, should they reach an impasse, the Court shall determine the School District Calendar to apply.	Dad	Mom

Summer/Track Break Vacations

The custodial parent shall be entitled to one (1) vacation each year with the children for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive weeks (unless otherwise agreed to in writing). The non-custodial parent shall be entitled four weeks visitation during the summer break, which may be taken consecutively or in two week blocks. Each parent shall designate his/her respective plans by May 1st of each year. The dates shall be conveyed to the other party in writing by way of written notice. If there is a conflict in dates, the parent who designates the vacation first (as verified by the certified mail stamp) will prevail as to the vacation time. Neither party shall schedule vacation time during the other party's holiday time or during time the children are scheduled to be in school. Mom shall have vacation selection priority in ODD years and Dad in EVEN years.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS	ODD YEAR	EVEN YEAR
Where the parents do not share the same religious beliefs, each parent shall have the right to provide religious instruction to the child unless there is a child welfare or endangerment issue that where the parents cannot resolve, may be presented to the Court. Additionally, where both parents are of the same faith (e.g. Jewish, Catholic etc.), both parents shall have the opportunity to enjoy the celebration of those holidays with the child. However, where the parent with the right to celebrate that holiday with the child does not intend to observe the formal ceremonies, that parent shall make the child available to the other parent for attendance at temple, mass, religious instruction, etc. Where one or both parents practice another religion, they are to alternate those holidays as provided in the following example for Jewish Holidays. A non-inclusive list of other religions where parents practicing same and shall alternate holidays are: Buddhist, Hindu, Greek Orthodox, Eastern and Russian Orthodox, Islamic, World Wide Church of God, Protestant, Lutheran, Baja's, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Sikh, Roman Catholic, Armenian Holidays, Eid of Adha, Chinese, Korean and Vietnamese New Year, etc.
JEWISH HOLIDAYS EXAMPLE:
Passover	Dad	Mom
Rosh Hashanah	Mom	Dad
Yom Kippur	Dad	Mom
Hanukkah	Mom	Dad
Bar Mitzvah Arrangements	Dad	Mom
NOTE: WHERE THERE IS AN OVERLAP OF CONFLICTING RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS, THE FOLLOWING PRIORITY SHALL PREVAIL:	Mom	Dad